U.S. Army Corps Of Engineers Celebrates Army Birthday/Flag Day

June 5, 2002

CHARLESTON, S.C. --- The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Charleston District will host Army Birthday and Flag Day festivities at the Corps' headquarters building at 69A Hagood Ave. at 10 a.m. June 14.

The schedule of events will include welcoming remarks, an invocation, and the presentation of the colors by the 4/108th Chemical Battalion, an Army reserve unit from Ft. Jackson. Team members will then participate in a mass pledge of allegiance to our National Flag, which will be followed by a few remarks from the District Commander.

The ceremony will culminate with a mass oath reaffirmation by District team members and the retiring of the colors.

While the event is for District employees, the media is invited to attend.

For more information on the day's event, contact the Charleston District's Public Affairs Officer Alicia Gregory at 329-8123.
